Wermont Watchman & State Vournal.

Langued

ancously at Mont pelice, Northfield, Waterbury, &c. &c.

BY E. P. WALTON & SO

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1853.

VOL. XLVII, NO. 14. WHOLE NO. 2419.

Wetchman & State Journal. sene

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

Machinella, E. D. PULNAU,
Machinella, E. D. PULNAU,
Machinella, E. D. PULNAU,
Machinella, E. C. NOVER,
Middlesen, J.D. P. DUNAON, Jr.
Kouldella, E. SMITH,
Mangel, C. A. L. OS CANDUNTER,
Mangel, A. T. BANCOUPT,
MICH. Holsten, C. SHIPUAN,
MICH. Molecula, MICH. M. MICH.
MICH. Molecula, MICH. M. MICH.
MICH. M. M. MICH.
MICH. M. M. MICH.
MICH. M. M. MICH.
MICH. M. M. MICH.
MICH. M. MICH.
MICH OWARD B. SAWYER,

Pocien.

"OF SUCH IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN."

BY MES, E. R. YOUNG.

How notes by who need Whose frieged title, or seems, string with months you a

Where on the former from the land of the ground

Sure earth nuclement a mine a chief unite tate

And praint down into the lowed open or

Has paye and sail 's reg n'es,

And the too a pleasings of the incomment were

Ching count the main flows, that home stress, Do through the gater of pools and golden wars

Miscellancous.

An Adventure in the Wrong House. BY THE MAN IN A HUBBY.

then, and never will. Up to that time in- windows closed, the shutter's bolted, and an ration had dried suddenly upon my skin , my ticularly to get out." then, and never will. Up to that time inwindows closed, the shorter's boiled, and an ration had dreat studenty appearance of the shorter's boiled, and an ration had dreat studenty appearance of the shorter's boiled, and an ration had dreat studenty appearance of the shorter's boiled, and an ration had dreat studenty appearance of the shorter's boiled in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and thought state of the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads, all over the country, and the man restricted in a conity of railroads and railroads and still a great, awkward boy; and I, being impossible that he could have introduced the house would quickly be asleep; it was the only thing they had to bequeath, became the property of a distant relation. I do not know how it happened, but I had no near know how it happened, but I had no near letters were an exact chronicle of every-out that hideous corpus defect I should feet of her finding herself in a quiet tete-aknow how it happened, but I had no near letters were an exact chronicle of every- out that hideous corpus delecti I should know how it happened, but I had no near letters were an exact chronicle of every-out that hideous coepus delect I should feet of her finding herself in a quiet tete-a-relations. I was a knowled from the house breaker, I cannot tell, but very doors, but the home market is daily who offers a gold watch, and fixins to of land, chiefly occupied for dairy purworld from the beginning; and I suppose was puzzing. And now that I had time to creep down into the health of the call. This have some chance. I must at all hazards tete with a housebreaker, I cannot tell, but the lady broke into a low hysterical laugh. extending." According to the Keene Senmatch, for the best specimen of horsemanposes, is managed at a cost of $1409 it was owing to my having no family and think, the house was much too large for a the lower regions, and replace the accursed chorage that I acquired the habit of sway- family requiring only three sleeping rooms, thing where I found it. It required nerve ing to and fro, and drifting hither and thith- even when I was at home. It was what is to attempt this; but I was thoroughly er, at the pleasure of wind and tide. Not called a double house, with rooms on both wound up; and after allowing a reasonable that my guardian was mattentive or un- sides of the hall; and the spartment, on the time to elapse, to give my enemies a fair kind-quite the reverse; but he was indo- threshhold of which I was still lingering, opportunity of falling asleep, I set out upon lent and careless, contenting himself with appeared from the dim light of the windows, the adventure. The door creaked as I went my pocket, and leaving everything else to ollected that the quantity of plate I had as I descended the steps, but slowly, stealdid the same thing to his daughter. But must have been three times greater than but one door on that side of the hall, which girls somehow cling wherever they are cast any the governor ever possessed, and that led to the area room-1 recollect the fact as Laura grew up, she gave the care she ness I had never before seen in the estab-had never found, and was the little mother lishment. I had never found, and was the little mother lishment.

have been a picture or a vase, or any thing else that is useless, except the taste or affections. But mamma was indispensable. It was like getting home. I was snug ed to form a part of her trosseau; I could and private. I had a chair there waiting the house I was connected with failed.

ter of great importance to my father; and non of the law. Police!-Police! mamma let out the secret by writing to me. My brain was wandering. I pressed my of the room. But first it was necessary to everywordy into the concluding tableauthat Laura was going to " change her con- hand upon my wet forchead, to keep down get rid, somehow or other, of my plunder - why there she is -that lady cutting bread which would fan have persuaded me that ble to deny the fact; but was there anything lief. I almost began to feel like the injured so happy a denouement.

coming out of a room on the opposite side, factor in a dangesia could have envied my sofa, and lecturing me on my horrible pro
She instantly receased, shut the door with reflections. In fact the evidence was so pensities till she grew black in the face. My dear sir, depend upon it, one's own oured, should and packed. We notice profitable, or that two or three per cent.

al less an anan anovided hilling hypohyposet at had gathered over my eyes; and an early and hilling hypohypohypostep after step—not as I bounded up, but it. I stepped out into the balcony, and looked over. Nothing was to be seen but a black and yawning gulf, beneath, guarded by the imaginary spikes of an invisible railing. Jack would have laughed at this diffi"Then, if you are not a robber, why are you bere—why creep in at the area window, appropriate other people's spoons, and get locked up all night in their house!"
"For no other reason than I was in a s in the with a sensation of absolute faintness I be- culty; but then he had more experience in burry. I had come home from Barcelona, he latter red right hand of a baronet made me so ters, fancying every now and then that I my coil of rops. The governor's house inside. In an instant, I was over the rails own actions, heard a door open behind me, and yet my either had no balcony at all, or it was too and in through the window like a barle-How I did worry that blessed old woman! feet no more consening to quicken my mo- far off to be reached. Presently I heard a quin, with the intention of giving the famihow Laura lectured and scouled! how the tion than if I had been pursued by a mur- footstep on the sidewalk, a little way off. It by a pleasing surprise, and my old monigovernor stormed ! and how I was forgiven deter in the nightmare. I at length got was appreaching with slow and measured tress, sister Laura, a great moral lesson on the next minute, and we were as happy into the room, groped for a chair and sut pace; the person was walking as calmly the impropriety of her leaving plate about again as the day was long!

| Description of the person was walking as calmly the impropriety of her leaving plate about again as the day was long! But at length the time of separation came. There was plenty of time: and plenty to do broad day. Suppose L hailed this philo- "Then you are Gerald, my dear Laura's I had grown a great hulking fellow, strong in it, for I had to wipe away the perspira- sophical stranger, and confided to him, in a conven, so long expected -- so beloved by enough to make my bread as a porter, if tion that ran down my face in streams.— friendly way, the fact. But the baronet, them all—so"— that had been needed; and so a situation. What was to be done? What had I done? without the sightest provocation, had lock.— Here the young lady blushed celestial was found for me in a counting house at Oh, a triffe. I had only sneaked into a gen- ed me up in his house, with his silver rosy red, and east down her eyes. What Burcelonia, and after a lecture and a hear- tleman's house by the area window, and spoons in my pocket? Perhaps he would these two girls had been saying to each ty cry from sister Laura, a blessing and a pocketed his table spoons; and here I was advise me what to do in the predicament, other about me, I never found out; but kiss from mamma, and a great sob kept locked and barred and bolted in, sitting Perhaps he would take the trouble of there was a secret, and I will go to death down by a burricane laugh from the gover- very comfortably, in the dark and alone, in knocking at the door, or crying fire, and upon it. Four years passed rapidly away. I had fortable! What a capital fellow, to be sure! and so make my escape. But while I was her father nor the servants ever knew a sylattained my full height, and more than my What an amusing personage! Would'nt looking wistfully down to see if I could not lable about the matter. I need not say how just share of inches. I had already enjoy- the baronet laugh in the morning? wouldn't discern the walking figure, which was now I was received next door. The governor ed a fair modicum of whiskers, and had be ask me to stay to breakfast! And under the window, a sudden glate from the swept down another sob with another gufeven made some progress in the cultivation wouldn't I eat heartily out of the spoons I spot dazzled my sight. It was the bull's faw; mamma bestowed upon me another of a pair of moustaches, when suddenly had stolen? But what name is that?— eye of a policeutan; and with the fastinct blessing and another kiss; and Laura was Who calls me a house breaker? Who gives of a predatory character, I shrunk back so rejoiced, that she gave me another cry, What to do? The governor insisted up- me in charge? Who lugs me off by the trembling, crept into the toom and shut and forgot to give me another lecture. My on my return to England, where his inter- neck? I will not stand it. I am innocent, the window. est among the mercantile class was conside except of breaking into a baronet's house. By this time I was sensible that there was than the last. Being less in a hurry, I erable; Laura hinted mysteriously that my I am a gentleman, with another gentleman's a little confusion in my thoughts, and by took time to build up a floarishing business presence in the house would soon be a mat- spoons in my pocket. I claim the protect way of employing them on practical and in partnership with Laura's husband. As a barg, and I could bear a hall suppressed, dead against me that I began to doubt my and her voice rose to a wild, uncarthly haby is never "a nuisance." historical cry. I bounded on, spring up own innocence. Why should I desire to scream which pierced through my brain? the drawing room stair, and entered the come into any individual's area window infirst door at a venture. All was dark, and stead of the door? And how came it that my recumbent posture. A voice that actu-I stopped for a moment to listen. Lights all this silver plate had found its way into ally in my cars, and a living form before were hurrying across the hall; and I heard my pockets? I was angry as well as terri- my eyes: a lady stood contemplating me, the rough voice of a man as if scolding and eff; I was judge and criminal in one; but with a half-scream on her lips, and the color The girl had doubtless given the alarm, sense of justice and I rose suddenly up to would have fallen to the ground, had I not in the shadow of the stair, and she could As I moved, however, the horrible body have had brile more than a vague impress I had in my pockets moved likewise, approfound. The boundaries of the room RAILROADS AND THE PARMERS. Railsion that she beheld a human figure. How pearing to me to shriek, like a score of ever this may be, the man's voice appeared heads, "Police! Police!" and the next into descend the stair to the area room, and stant I heard a quick foot step ascending the gree of perplexity as to whether I was not stock-holders, many of whom have bled pro-I will tell you about an affair-important, presently I heard a crashing noise, not as if stair. Now was the fatal moment come! as it proved to me; but you must not hurry he was counting the plate, but rather thrust- I was on my feet; my eyes glared on the as it proved to me; but you must not hurry he was counting the plate, but rather thrust. I was on my feet; my eyes glared on the "Madam," said I, "I you are avision it me. I have never been in a hurry since ing it aside en musse. Then I heard the door; my hands were clenched; the perspirits of no consequence; if not, I want parsupposed me destined to carry a young notwithstanding, to examine the lastenings ness I sat down again, with a dreadful in- begone, head upon old shoulders to the grave -- of the street door, and even to lock it, and difference to the screams of the plate in my However, I was brought up at last " with a put the key in his pocket. He then retirs pocket. Presently there were more fooiround turn." I was allowed a certain space of into a room, and all was silence.

Steps in the half; then voices; then drawfor reflection, and plenty of materials; and if it did not do me good, it's a pity!

The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting, terri
The governor kept no male servant that I ter darkness; then silence—lasting the server that I ter darkness the server that I ter My father and mother died when I was I knew of, and had never done so. It was tile, profound! The house had gone to bed; this change into his household without my time to be up and doing. But first and providing abundantly for my schooling and to be of very considerable size. I now rec- out; the plate grated against my very soul away!" chance. He would have done the same seen-a portion of which at this moment thily I crept along the wall; and at length thing to his son if he had had one, and he felt preternaturally heavy in my pockets- found myself on the level floor. There was -anything is an anchorage for them; and, various pieces were of a size and massive- distinctly-and it was with inexpressible reshment.
In vain I bethought myself that I had the door did not open; it was locked; it As to the titular mother, she had not an seen and recognized the well known door- was my fate to be a thief; and after a moatom of character of any kind. She might plate, and that the area from which I enter- ment of new dismay, I turned again dogged- me. ed was immediately under; in vain I argu- ly, reached the stair, and re-entered the u-who have nothing in them are nobody in a not convince myself. But the course of my me. I thought to myself, that many a man house. Our mamma was the very centre thoughts suggested an idea, and pulling would take a deal of trouble to break into and point of our home feeling; and it was from my pocket a table spoon, I felt, for I such a house. I had only sucaked. I wonstrange to observe the devout care we took | could not see, the legend which contained dered how Jack Shepard felt on such occaof a personage who had not two ideas in her my fate. But my fingers were tremulous; stons. I had seen him at the Adelphi in the they seemed to have lost sensation-only I person of Mrs. Keeley, and a darling little It is no wonder that I was always in a fancied I did feel something more than the dog he was. He would make nothing of surry, for I must have had an instinctive governor's plain initials. There was still a getting down into the street from the wingovernor, as I called my adopted father, had nothing more than a genteel independent of the sast more than a g held upon the spoon an engraved creat—the the graft than I, and was provided with all and was going into my guardian's, next his drawing room. Very particularly com- when the servants entered I might rush out, She let me out so quietly, that neither it was mornably to go lack again like the really serious in the case! I had unques- party-more like a captive than a robber; The family, I knew, had removed to any right-hand one instead of the left-hand one; with a sort of vague idea that I might per- awful bores, especially to a hurried busiother house; but being well acquainted but was I not as unquestionably the relation hape stomble upon some trap door or slid-ness man." with the town, I had no difficulty in finding -the very distant relation-of the next- mg pannel, which would lead to the open. Are they! Suppose you and a certain One of the area-windows was open, gap- he carelessness to leaving it exposed? Fit one elaborate grandole hung round with dickles, and strat off down street, as although her information must have been acceptain whether it was possible to get spring up and caught her in my arms. I very indistinct; for when she saw me I was from the window into the street. I and her sofily down on the fautoril. In had her sofily down on the fautosil. It ___

I, " were it all the world over;" for the in- almost every class amought us have been creasing light showed me as lovely a crea- benefitted, with the exception of those who ture as the morning sun ever shone upon; furnished the means of building the road. but as for the plunder, you must excuse "This is yet only hopeful " deferred stock;" me there: I never stole any thing before, but the prospect is yearly more encouraging and, please beaven, I never will again!"

the latter red right hand of a baronet! necessary appliances. door, when your unfortunate area-window gave me. I crept back again, holding by the banis- As for me, I had stapidly forgotten even caught my eye, with the plate on the table next four years were spent to more purpose useful objects, I determined to make a tour for the baronet's daughter-for we must get the thick coming Jancies, and determined, to plant the property, as we call it; and and butter for the children, with as matra's bushand; and gulping down my pride, an awkward predicament—it was impossi- ed it with the cover. This was a great re- oldity of that First Interview which led to buildings which had spring up in the fash- sent from the house, and was there any- where I should be sale for any given non- your patrimony to win, were joint proprieionable out-kirts during my absence; and thing more matural than that I should de- ber of years from my persecutors. But tors of that baby! I shouldn't dare to stand although it was far on in the evening, my sire to pay my next visit through a snoter- there was nothing of the kind in this stern very near you, and call it a "a nuisance," accustomed eyes soon de cried through the ranean window! I had appropriated, it is prosare place; neshing but a few cabinets It's all very well for bachelors to turn up gloom the governor's old fashioned door- true, a quantity of silver-plate I had found; and tables, and conches, and arm-chairs, their single-blessed noses at these little plate. I was about to knock, really agoust but with what other invention could I have and common chairs, and devotional chairs, dimpled Capids; but just wait till their ed with delight and struggling memories, done this than to present it to my distant and footstools, and lamps, and statuetts, time time comes! See'em, the minute relation's daughter, and reproach her with and glass shades, and knick-knacks; and their name is written" Papa," pull up their ing as if for my receptions. A quantity of mally, I was snared, caged, trapped-door crystal prisms, which played such an inter- Commonwealth owed them a pension! When plate lay upon a table close by. Why and window had been bolted upon me with- minable time against each other when I they enter the office, see their old-married should I not enter and appear mannounced out any remonstrance on my part-and I chanced to move them that I stumbled a partner (to whom babies have long ceased in the drawing room, a sunburnt phantom was now some considerable time in the way as fast as I could and subsided into a to be a novelty) laugh in his sleeves at of five feet eleven! Why should I not pre- house, unsuspected, yet a prisoner. The faiteuil so rich, so deep, that I felt myself the dignity with which that baby's adsent the precise and careful Laura with a position was serious, but come, suppose swallowed up, as it were, in its pillow of year is amounted! How perfectly aston-bandful of her own spoons and forks, left so the more, that I was actually laid hold of swalledown issued they feel that they should have been That is only a figure of speech. I asked said, a distant relation to the individual I looked back, to form a considerable por- a family! How frequently one may see for nothing, & visiters to the fair, half price. That is only a figure of speech. I asked said, a distant relation to the individual properties a family flow frequency one may be a family flow frequency one may a family flow frequency one may be a family flow frequency one may a family I had crept in by the window; and chuck- and after four year's residence in a foreign the fact occurred to me with starting dis- they love to come home to dinner, and press erected in Boston, at a cost of thirty thou- later have gone down with the butter. A ling at my own eleverness, and the great country, I had returned, idle, penaltess and tinciness, that all I had gone through was their little velvet cheek to their business moral lesson I was about to teach, I was objectless-just in time to find an area-win- only preliminary to something to happen; faces! Was there ever any music half so stuffing my pockets with the plate.

dow open in the dusk of the evening, and a that the morning was to come, the family sweet to their ear as its first fisped "Papa?"

While thus engaged, the opening of a heap of plate lying behind it within view of to be astir, and the house breaker to be ap- Oh, how closely and imperceptibly, one by door to the ball above simulation was not encourage afraid of the fedure of my plan, I stapped. This effectamination was not encourage lightly up the stair, which was partially ing; the case was decidedly queer; and as whiles. How else can I account for my over its cradle when the cheek flushes and of the management tighted by the hall lamp. As I was about I sat thus pundering in the dark with the sister Liura standing over me where I re- the hip is fever-parched; and how wide, to emerge at the top, a setvant girl was spoons in my hand, I am sare that no male- clined pointing to the stolen plate on the and deep, and long a shadow in their hap-

The Dlow and the Goe. BY E. P. WALTON.

"He that by the Plea would have thouse there was a restrict to the property of the property of still in the land of dreams! Suckar-holders, many of whom have been promuch as the country farmers. In the viintention—only by way of amusement. Here quantities, and latterly masts and sugar, and embroidery. it is ;" and going to the sofa, I drew off the maple keels for ships, are drawn through our streets to the railroad station, for easther voice getting quaverous again, "for the whole must have been in your power. I New York at least are to be supplied with will let you out so softly that no one will the finest slate from the Castleton quarries. know. Put up in your pockets what you The mechanics had a good and well imhave risked so much to possess, and follow proved harvest, laying a good foundation, "I will follow you with pleasure," said while the railroads were building. Indeed as rather out of season, and inappropriate, until the last. We regard this as a very to bestow much thought or attention on the culture of fruit, such as the peach, so far at the north as Vermont. We think other- seed, saving the trouble and uncertainty of wise. There is no season of the year more building. We have raised hundreds of appropriate to planning, reading and think. these trees in the nursery, which were pering, than the winter. It has already been demonstrated that Peaches, with proper have been builded. As this peach is not care and culture, can be raised even "away very large, nor very beautiful, it may not out of the world up in Vermont." We be so saleable in market as large and showy have feasted upon as rich and delicious a peaches. It may not sell for what it is repeach, raised in Brattleboro', as upon the may sell beyond their intrinsic value. Yet best of which New Jersey can boast .- a moderate proportion of them may be prof-I was glad to hear this, for I knew be for the first time in my life, to hold a delib- with that view, I laid it carefully, piece by rouly an air as Wester Charlotte; she is Among the varieties of the peach for nor- itable for market, and for one's own use it would be a model of a fellow who was Lau- erate consultation with myself. I was in piece, in the corner of a sofa, and conceal- my wife; and we laugh to this day at the thern cultivation is the Melocoton Peach, is a very valuable variety. There are other of which the above engraving is a fair rep-resontation. The following description of ill supence, I set out on my return home. trough the wrong area, the and I groped my way through the room, "Baby-carts on parrow side-walks are it we copy from the New England Farmer: tical with it. This peach resembles the This peach has been raised by Col. Eli- English Melocoton, so called, raised in sha Hale, of Rock Bottom, (Stow,) from Maine some forty years ago. The fruit is the seed, for more than twenty years, and of medial size; oblong, flat at the base, the place. It was a range of handsome door originate? I had been four years als air, or at worst, into a secret chamber, pair of blue eyes, that you would give half it invariably produces the same fruit. This slight suture on one side; bright yellow; fruit is remarkably rich and sweet and uni- flesh yellow, of a very rich, sweet, and exformly good. It is also noted for its long cellent flavor; freestone. The tree is of keeping in excellent condition. We received a quantity of these peaches from good bearer, and bears early. Reinform Col. Hale one season; we took no unusual glands; ripe from the 5th to the 15th of on agricultural business. The superinten- WHEAT AND CORN ES. BRANDY AND Todent of the Vermont Central is entitled to nacco. By the treasury tables, just issued high commendation for his liberality in at Washington, made up from the census pledging the handsome sum of $1500 to- returns, the astonishing fact is revealed, wards defraying the expense of preparing that we smoke up, in Spanish cigars, our the grounds at this place for the next State whole export of wheat, and guzzie down, Fare. We dope the Central, Rayland and in French cogulac, our entire export of Inconveniently at the service of any trea- as a malefactor, and commanded to give an sheak who might chance to pass by ! Why? account of myself. Well: I was, as aforeother railroads in Vermont will reap a rich re- dian corn. Puffers, guzzlers, and politisand dollars, and finished in ninety days similar fall in the article has taken place in from the commencement of the enturprise, the New York and Albany market, for curing and packing provisions for the jectors and owners. Every convenience is four State premium farms, serve as a afforded for the reception of beef and pork, good answer to the hackneyed asser-Love heralds this for the information of farmers in the is all that can be expected from capital country, and those engaged in the purchase invested in land. The farm of N. Hayand sale of beef and pork.

> dia rubber consciences, but never heard given at $1470, which sum includes 7 that it was good for horse shoes until re- per cent interest on $10,000, estimated cently. A Boston paper says that experi- value of the farm, that is about ten dolments recently made indicate that India lars interest per acre, besides all taxes, rubber borse shoes will prove quite as du- cost of manure, labor, seeds, insurance, fortable to that noble animal the horse. fits $1256—that is, $18.48 per acre, It's a pity the horses that are to trot on the after paying all expenses and interest. ice, near Prescott, Canada West, the pres- This is better than bank or railway ent month, were not shod with India rub- stock. A few of the principal items of

That is sooner said than done. The their doors, with cash, at an advanced price, ton has given $20 to the New Hampsbire besides many crops of less value. It doors and windows below are locked and for the products of their farms. Their Agricultural State Society, with a request may be proper to state that the proprieperplexity the whole of last night;" and, dug from the earth without the expense of drawing a chair, I sat down in bont of her. a trip to California. "Not only have the for a similar purpose to the Vermont State have drawn from the State Society fully Whether it was owing to this action, or great markets, at a mere trifle of expense Agricultural Society? We know of a gen-"How did you break in " said she. tinel, "the rise of gricultural products has ship, by a Vt. lady, atthe next State Fair, but per annum; on which the receipts are been on an average perhaps 33 per cent. we have heard of no premium for those cscharacter, I assure you. But the area win-dow was open, and so I just thought I cords of wood consumed extra, and the dis- er, experiness and neatness in patching and est is to be paid on the land. "You were attracted by the plate! Take tant calls for lumber of various kinds, have durning-quite as important to the thrift Albert G. Ford's farm, in Fairfield, it for beaven's sake, desperate man, and go given a new value to our forest lands. Hem- and welfare of a family, as the fine and Herkimer County, contains 130 acres, "I did take some of it, but with no evil lock bark, timber for wooden ware, in large more beautiful specimens of needle work 95 of which are improved land. The MAPLE Synur. It is excellent on buck-wheat cakes. The lovers of hot cakes and cheese, and $510 of hay, are ; 2396, or maple molasses, in Boston, have been feast- $1460 net profits. This is a tiet return ing upon new-made syrup, or maple honey, of $11 per acre for the whole farm, or the genuine Vermont article, made in Woodstock, February, 1853. If any body we could furnish twenty more not unis disposed to find fault with a Vermont like them from our own knowledge,) winter, let them call upon Messrs. T. M. ought to convince all who place the Learned & Co., 31 Congress street, Boston, highest net profits on farm investments and smack their lips over the purest of and per cent., either that they are desweets from the juice of the maple, made ficient in abilities, or have never been as early as the 7th of February, instant. informed themselves of the best modes

"Surely you are a most extraordinary of a fairer remuneration."

CATTLE. The cattle growers of Madison at once this volume of Transactions, and person," said the young lady, suddenly, for In this connexion we take occasion to County, Ohio, have formed a company, rend over carefully the statements of the light seemed to have made a revelation say that the railroads in Vermont show a with a capital of ten thousand dollars paid the admirable management of these preto her likewise; "you neither look nor liberal and commendable spirit towards the talk like a robber."

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—

"Nor am 1. I am not even a robber—pains to preserve them, and used them dai. September.

ward & Son, of Brighton, Monroe Coun-INDIA RUBBER. We have heard of inrable as iron, and twice as light and com- and even newspaper subscriptions. The ness; the yearly cost $926; the whole Now, such statements as these, (and of farming; and we advise them to buy CATTLE. The cattle growers of Madison at once this volume of Transactions, and